

Curriculum Vitae

Sydney Brenner, born January 13, 1927, South Africa. Nationality: British

Address: The Molecular Sciences Institute, 2168 Shattuck Avenue, 2nd Floor, Berkeley, CA 94704, USA

Academic Education and Appointments

- 1947 MSc University of Witwatersrand, South Africa
- 1951 MB, BCh, University of Witwatersrand, South Africa
- 1954 DPhil, Oxford University, UK
- 1979-86 Director, Medical Research Council Laboratory of Molecular Biology, Cambridge, England
- 1986-91 Director, Medical Research Council Molecular Genetics Unit, Cambridge, England
- 1996- President and Director of Science, The Molecular Sciences Institute, La Jolla and Berkeley
- 2000- Distinguished Research Professor, The Salk Institute, La Jolla, USA

Selected Honours and Awards

- 1965 Fellow of the Royal Society (FRS)
- 1971 Albert Lasker Medical Research Award
- 1974 Royal Medal, Royal Society of London
- 1976 Honorary DSc, University of Chicago
- 1978 Gairdner Foundation International Award, Canada
- 1980 Krebs Medal, Federation of European Biochemical Societies
- 1981 Ciba Medal, Biochemical Society
- 1985 Foreign Member of Real Academia de Ciencias, Spain
- 1986 Rosenstiel Award, Brandeis University, USA
- 1987 Prix Louis Jeantet de Medecine, Switzerland
- 1987 Harvey Prize, Technion - Israel Institute of Technology
- 1988 Waterford Bio-Medical Science Award, The Research Institute of Scripps Clinic
- 1988 External Scientific Member of the Max-Planck Society

- 1989 Honorary Fellow of the Indian Academy of Sciences
- 1989 Honorary Member of the Chinese Society of Genetics, Taiwan
- 1990 Kyoto Prize
- 1991 Gairdner Foundation International Award, Canada
- 1992 King Faisal International Prize for Science, King Faisal Foundation
- 1992 Associe Etranger, Académie des Sciences, Paris, France
- 2000 Albert Lasker Award for Special Achievement in Medical Science
- 2001 Novartis Drew Award In Biomedical Research

The Nobel Assembly at Karolinska Institutet